

CODE OF CONDUCT - ROCKLEY GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB

Annual golfers, Visitors and other Guests.

The Code of Conduct has been developed to ensure a safe, friendly and respectful place for golfers to gather in the spirit of cooperation, relaxation, good will, fun and friendly competition. The Code of Conduct differs from rules in that it addresses acceptable/unacceptable behaviour. All golfers of Rockley Golf Club are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that:

Creates an environment and culture that is reflective of the personal integrity and respect taught in the rules of golf where it is written that we are capable of enforcing rules upon ourselves with honesty, integrity and good sportsmanship. This same integrity, honesty and good will are expected whether on the golf course or in the Clubhouse. Is free of discrimination or any form of harassing behaviour. Shows the utmost respect and dignity to fellow golfers, visitors and guests. Does not damage the character, integrity, good will, property and community view (local and/or the broader community) of Rockley Golf Club.

Everyone is required, at all times, to adhere to prevailing General Rules as well as Local Rules for both the course and the clubhouse. See General Rules on homepage. See Local Rules on homepage.

Some examples:

- Sign in procedures in the Clubhouse.
- Rental and safe operation of carts in designated areas ONLY.
- Learn the basic rules of golf.
- Does not denigrate, talk down to, scream at staff, golfers or guests and does not create unnecessary strife and divisiveness through any manner.

Everyone is required, at all times, to adhere to prevailing dress code and etiquette for both the course and the clubhouse. See Dress Code and Etiquette on homepage.

Some examples:

- Pride in the physical appearance of Rockley Golf Club.
- Proper attire is requested of all which includes appropriate golf wear.
- No cut off shirts and pants
- No ripped or torn clothing
- No soiled or stained clothing

Violation of the Code of Conduct - Disciplinary procedures.

Should the conduct of any Golfer either in the Clubhouse or on the Course give concern to the Management or the Board of Rockley Golf & Country Club, either by observation or intimation the Board may take whatever action they deem fit to rectify the situation in terms of suspension or expulsion from the Club. In terms of discipline, the decision of the Board shall be final. Neither the Club nor the Board shall be liable for any claim at the instance of said Golfer in respect of suspension or expulsion. Examples of disciplinary actions:

- Be warned verbally.
- Be issued written warning and are subject to suspension at any time.
- Be automatically suspended from the Club.
- Not be due any reimbursed fees already paid.
